Q15

Please list specific reasons for any selections that are in the 4/5 categories.

Development of OLM is critical to Emergency Operations. Another 1000' would allow added safety for nearly every jet and turboprop aircraft that could possibly use the airport - adding 2000' would make Scheduled Air Carrier PAX and Cargo service an option, adding 3000' would make OLM the best alternate to SEATAC in the entire PNW. Looking into the future, a buildout now will be one half the cost compared to delaying 10-15 years and you WILL need the capability as PNW Population grows. Get this done as soon as possible - and use the 3000' add. Yes, this seems a stretch now, but in 15 years you'll look back and kick yourselves for not adding capacity and capability when doing so was cheap

Q16

Are there any additional services and improvements you would like to see offered at OLM?

More Open hangars would allow more aircraft to base at OLM and provide better protection for aircraft.

Q15

Please list specific reasons for any selections that are in the 4/5 categories.

Security at OLM is a joke. There are places in the fence that a 10 year old kid with his mother's kitchen step could climb over the fence. The "convenience" gates with a simple chain and lock should be eliminated. The entire fence around the perimeter should be higher and the top wires should ALWAYS lean outward; there are several places where the top wiring is vertical. There are at least two places where anyone can just walk through a business without being challenged.

Q16

Are there any additional services and improvements you would like to see offered at OLM?

YES ! I rented (for at least 5 years) a "shelter" that is just a roof to keep the sun off . Then I rented a hangar. A shelter is very much overpriced compared to a hangar. The shelter gives NO protection from the many birds that infest the hangar area. So bird manure regularly falls on any airplane under the shelter. Airport workmen tried to fix the problem with inadequate planning, inadequate tools, and inadequate materials. The result above my airplane was worse than the original. They had CREATED a nice nesting place for the birds so I got MORE manure falling. The electrical service is barely adequate and nobody can work there when rain is falling and wind blowing. I finally got a hangar that cannot be heated as there is no provision for a propane tank and burner outside the hanger and no entryway for heat generated from the propane. Those hangars are about 3 degrees warmer than the outside air so I have to quit working on my airplane in November and come back in April. Fortunately my wife and I just go to Maui but this year I have lost another 12 months when I could have worked. My 2nd airplane is in a hangar at Western Air Park.

Q22

Please provide any additional comments about the airport:

We need a higher and better fence with ONE entryway and a guard on the entryway on the east side instead of 6 automatic gates that anyone can drive through before it closes behind the 1st car. We also need optional telephone service. We need a decent bathroom instead of porta-potties.

Q15

The covered tie downs are filthy and never cleaned by the airport crew so getting in a hangar would keep my plane clean and my health better. There is a pile of bird crap that's been there for four months.

Is there a place to recycle oil on OLM?

More hangar space and an actual pilot lounge like smaller airports everywhere else. It seems the focus is not on GA but businesses and it's a major point of discussion from other pilots as to why they rarely fly into OLM.
